WILL TAKE CHARGE OF THE MATTER OF INVESTIGATING DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.

Governor Carter yesterday afternoon asked A. F. Judd to act as his personal representative in the matter of the investigation of the Department of Public Instruction, in connection with the report which was turned over to the governor by the House committee on Public Expenditures. Judd agreed to act in the matter, and the report has been turned over to him.

The report of the committee, as turned over to Carter and by him referred to Judd, contains a lot of testimony which was taken by the House committee. This is the testimony on which the committee based its recommendation that the matter be investigated declaring that "it appears to seriously discredit the administration."

THE SURF BOAT FIESTA AT WAIKIKI

LARGE CROWDS GO OUT TO WITNESS THE NOVEL DIVERSION—MANY SURF BOARD RIDERS.

The surf boat fiesta at the Waikiki Beach yesterday afternoon attracted large crowds thither. The beach from Kinaiu Hale to beyond the Moana hotel was crowded with sight seers and merry makers. Several hundred people including probably nearly every tourist and visitor in the city, were there to see the novel attraction.

There were a dozen or more canoes of different sizes taking part in the entertainment. A number of very merry parties of both men and women were out in canoes riding the surf.

The sea was rather too smooth for the most exciting surf riding but later in the afternoon, the curlers began coming in and at times there were a half dozen or more surf boats with as many swimmers on surf boards, riding in toward the shore on the self same roller. It was exciting and exhilarating.

There were exhibited a number of fine examples of surf board riding, the riders standing erect on their boards. One rider there was who stood on his head on his surf board, riding along in advance of the curling breaker. C. C. Bittling introduced diversion by riding his horse into the water. A soldier from Camp McKinley who was in swimming was seized with cramps and was only rescued by another bather who brought him ashore. The soldier was unconscious for some time.

Altogether it was a very pleasing and enjoyable festival.

GOVERNOR CARTER WANTS TO KNOW

WHY DID THE JONES MURDER TRIAL COST SUCH A LARGE SUM?

Governor Carter has received and answered a letter from Circuit Judge Robinson on the subject of appropriations for court expenses. The judge called attention to the fact that the Jones murder trial cost $2,963.55, out of the court's expense fund and said that the Naone trial would probably cost $2,000 extra. He therefore asked for an appropriation of $5,000 extra, to cover the expenses.

In reply the governor says that he is astounded by the statement of the cost of the Jones trial, and continues as follows:

"One of the comments often heard in relation to matters of American jurisprudence is the great cost of murder trials, the long delays, and the arduous duty of jury service, and these are in some communities the causes which result in lawlessness, by bringing about the feeling that the people had best take the law in their own hands."

"Certainly under the present practice and laws of the Territory, the judges have wide discretion, and if those responsible for the conduct of the courts cannot curtail unreasonable delays and lavish expenditures, it will inevitably result in a restriction of the power which every law-abiding and self-respecting community believes should be given to the judges."

"Respect for law is a marked characteristic of American citizenship, and intelligent people naturally hesitate in expressing disapproval of the actions of any court, as it detracts from the deference which all feel is due to them. I believe public opinion in this community approves of the wide latitude allowed the judges, but, on the other hand, desires that this discretion, should be used with some regard for the taxpayer."

"Facing a shortage of ready money and the necessity for issuing warrants and in view of the economies practiced in other departments of the Territory, the simple statement that this expenditure has been incurred is not sufficient to warrant the administration in recommending this appropriation of $5,000. Kindly furnish a statement of why the case lasted so long, and the details of expenditures, by which the expense of boarding and lodging the jury amounted to $2,218.25."
